New York Stock Market.

New York, July 16.—Governments dull and firm, with 4s strong and in demand. Stocks opened with a more decided feeling in favor of nigher prices, more harmonious relations with the Chicago and attantic serving to help speculation in Ere. There was extensive buying for London account, which was also a faction in the rise of the morning. Sterling exchange rates were reduced on account of aphetic supply of hills drawn against the securities iately purchased in this market, but the latter face was lost sight of when the market became too heavy to suit the leaders, and prices were let down toward midday, the market sinking into usual midday, the market sinking into usual midday, the market sinking into usual midday, the market following, which was attacked from several different quarters at once and dropped quickly over I per cent. A noticeable feature of the decline in this stock, however, was the after-movement in Western Union.

Wheat—Demand improving; new No. 2 winter 6s 7½d; new No. 2 spring 5s 6½d.

Corn—Demand fair; spot and July steady, 4s ½d; August steady; 4s ½d; September steady, 4s ½d.

A leading weekly grain circular says: Wheat is very steady. Values are fairly supported in various spot markets and also for cargoes. The market for the latter was mostly cleared, some of the cargoes being taken for the continent. To-day's market was well attended. The general tone was steady. A moderate business was done in wheats. White wheats wold at Toesday's rates and red wheats were 1d lower. A retail trade was done in flour at previous rates. There was a fair demand for corn at the closing rates of the last market.
